Your request for information held on the South Wales Police Information Systems will be actioned under the Data Protection Act 2018 (incorporating the General Data Protection Regulation [GDPR]).

Please be advised that we are unable to provide the quality of service that we routinely aspire to, due to pressures resulting from current resource issues and the Covid-19 pandemic, combined with an unprecedented volume of applications which may result in a delay.

Please note that South Wales Police and Gwent Police share a common Records Management System called “Niche”. It is therefore possible that you may receive an additional response from the other force in relation to your Subject Access application.
